

INFUSED

with the holy spirit

You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you...
Acts 1:8

Introduction:

- The average Christian today is in pretty sorry shape. Adrift in a sea of trouble, confused as to their very purpose, denying the elements of the Gospel and departing the faith, most Christians are powerless to overcome the obstacles of living for Jesus in the 21st century...let alone make an impact on the Kingdom.
- It seems the twelve disciples weren't any different – even after physically spending three years under the teaching of Jesus Himself.
- But they didn't stay that way...and neither can we. The disciples we see in Acts are dramatically different than the same disciples in the Gospels. What made the difference?

Jesus Made A _____

You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses...

Acts 1:8

The Promise Was _____ (Acts 2:1-4)

Holy Spirit was manifest in powerful terms such as:

- _____
- _____

A Few Observations from Acts 1:8

1. God promises supernatural, life-changing _____
You will receive power...

2. This Power comes through a _____
...when the Holy Spirit comes on you

- He is a _____ person
- He is a _____ person

3. This Person has a _____
...and you will be my witnesses

God's kingdom is God's plan and purpose, and we as the church are the vehicle to deliver it. So if you want to see Holy Ghost power, make sure you are involved in the kingdom. If you are not doing kingdom business, don't expect Holy Ghost power.

Anthony Evans, The Promise, p. 165

Conclusion:

Just as water is transformed into a potent beverage when it is infused with tea, so the believer is transformed into a powerful vessel of God when he is infused with the _____.