Foundations

This team-led group (Tim Hunsicker, Gary Likowski and Andriy Adroshchuk) will be completing their studying of the book of Romans. We will spend several weeks breaking down key passages and major themes of this epistle to deepen our understanding of the gospel. Then we will begin a study on the beatitudes. The beatitudes come from the opening verses of the famous Sermon on the Mount delivered by Jesus and recorded in Matthew 5:3-12. The group meets at 9:30am in A-1.

Marriage Builders

For young married couples

Brian and Tammy Dors and Dan and Jaclyn Shaffer will be studying the topic of God's design for marriage. There are few phrases that generate more smiles and warm more hearts than "I now pronounce you". These words that launch a lifetime of commitment and love between a man and a woman. Recently however, God's design for marriage has come into question and not solely from outside the church but also from within. We will open the Bible, the ultimate authority for our lives, to look at God's design for marriage, and to seek answers to tough but genuine questions. This group meets at 9:30am in A-9 and A-10 (parlor).

How can we spiritually survive in this increasingly hostile environment? In this study, Larry Osborne uses the example of Daniel, who was exiled in Babylon, as well as stories of real-life people from our current time, to show how the power of hope, humility, and wisdom helps us not only survive, but actually thrive in our culture. This group meets at 9:30am in D-3.

Crossroads

Open group for all ages

Mal and Sandi Brooker and John and Jeanette Kraidich will begin a study on 1 & 2 Peter. Believers in the early church scattered across the Roman Empire, were facing the threat of increased persecution. Peter, the most outspoken of the disciples and leader among the apostles, wrote two practical and encouraging letters to strengthen the hearts of these followers of Christ. Through words of hope and wisdom, he taught them how to live victoriously in the midst of life-threatening trials. This group meets at 11:00am in D-28.

Explorers

Open group for all ages

Jim and Sue Lutzo will be leading the study End of Me by Kyle Idleman. This study reveals that the key to the abundant life Jesus promised lies in embracing His inside out way of life. We will examine Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, unpacking the many counter-intuitive truths, including brokenness is the way to wholeness, mourning is the path to blessing, and emptiness is required in order to know true fullness. Ultimately we will discover how Jesus transforms us as we begin to experience the full, blessed, and whole life that Jesus offers each of us. We plan on watching a video segment one week and discussing it the following week. This group meets at 11:00am in D-22.

Harvesters

Open group for all ages

Jim and Wendy Kazak will be leading the study When God's People Pray by Jim Cymbala. Prayer can change lives and circumstances like nothing else can. What are the keys that unlock its power, that turn prayer from a mere activity into a vital link with God and all his resources? In this study, Jim Cymbala, pastor of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, explores truths about prayer that God has used to turn his own church from a tiny, struggling inner-city congregation into a vital, thriving community of believers who pray with passion, focus, and faith. This group meets at 11:00am in D-25.

Sonseekers

Open group for all ages

George and Betty Leshan are leading a study on the Gospel of John. The Gospel of John was written to prove that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. As an eyewitness to the love and power displayed in the miracles of Jesus. John gives us an up close and personal look at Christ's identity. He shows us that Jesus, though fully God, came in the flesh to distinctly and accurately reveal God, and that Christ is the source of eternal life to all who believe in him. This group meets at 11:00am in A-9 and 10 (parlor).

Truth Seekers
