

PARMA HEIGHTS BAPTIST CHURCH
Senior Adult Autumn Fellowship
March 2018

Senior Adult Bible Study
Tuesday, March 13 at 1:00pm in B-5

This month, Pastor Jon Perkins will lead us through a study of God's Word as we continue "Roamin' Through Romans". Bring your Bible, a friend and a pen. Refreshments and fellowship to follow.

Autumn Fellowship Trip
Tuesday, March 20
Departure at 10:00am

We'll eat lunch at the Golden Corral in Hermitage, PA, then visit Kraynak's, a shopping delight! There's a 300-foot arrangement of spring windows featuring animated displays, and the opportunity to shop for decor, candy, plants, toys and much more. We'll also stop by the famous Daffin's Chocolate Kingdom in Sharon, where all of your Easter candy desires can be found. Cost: $20 (includes meal and transportation.) Tickets are only available in person at the church office beginning Sunday, March 11.

Autumn Fellowship Meal
Tuesday, March 27 at 12 noon
Apartment pick-up at 11:15am

Celebrate the risen Savior with us! We'll enjoy a delicious meal of corned beef and cabbage with potatoes, carrots, and dessert. We'll also be treated to a musical presentation by Parma Heights Christian Academy's 3rd graders. Then we'll hear from an eyewitness (Marian Pledger) of the crucifixion and resurrection that first Easter weekend. BRING NO FOOD, only an appetite and a friend. Cost is only $4 per person.

Autumn Fellowship is a Senior Adult Ministry of Parma Heights Baptist Church and is open to the public. Our purpose is to help senior adults find and follow Christ to a faithful finish. Our goal is to develop seniors ministering to seniors.
