

ONE

ONE CHURCH. ONE MISSION. WON GENERATION.

Introduction:

- When Jesus called His first disciples, He gave them a clear and compelling mission so they knew exactly what they were to be about and what their purpose was. That mission has never changed.
- When you answered Jesus' call to follow Him, you answered a clear and compelling call to do something extraordinarily meaningful with your life. You answered the call to join God on mission!

Life Mission Clarification:

Jesus: "From now on, you will be _____!"

Questions:

How?

How am I to be catching men?

How can I join God on His everyday mission?

Jesus turned Peter's fishing boat into a platform from which He was going to declare His glory and display His power.

Jesus intends to take the _____ of your life and use it to accomplish His mission on your _____.

Again, the question is "How?"

How can I have redemptive influence on my world?

How can I join God on His mission of "catching men?"

Two Keys From Peter's Life – Two Keys for My Life:

1. I must let Jesus _____.

Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land (v. 3).

2. I must make Jesus _____ of my life.

"Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets" (v. 5).

Conclusion:

As we close this morning's message, let me ask you a few questions.

» What is your _____?

» Who is your _____?

» Are you willing to answer to the call to _____?
