

DISCOVERING GOD'S WILL
FOUR DECISIONS TO GET YOU THERE

Introduction:

- God's Word makes it clear that He has a good plan for our lives – one that He wants us to discern and discover.
- Yet too many people wonder and wander throughout life somewhat purposelessly.
- Romans 12:1-2 provides practical advice on how to discover God's good, perfect, and acceptable will for our lives. From this passage and series we're examining four decisions to help us discover God's will.
- Discovering God's will for our lives:
 - Decision #1: Present yourself to God
 - Decision #2: Separate yourself from the world

DECISION #3

_____ Your Mind with Scripture.

...be transformed by the renewal of your mind (Romans 12:2b).

- Saturate – Thoroughly soaked so that no more can be absorbed.

Benefits of Saturating My Mind with Scripture:

1. Scripture will strengthen my _____. (Romans 10:17)

2. Scripture will guard me against _____. (Psalm 119:11)

3. Scripture will help me examine my _____. (Hebrews 4:12-13)

4. Scripture will _____ me for daily life. (II Timothy 3:16-17)

Steps to Saturate My Mind with Scripture:

1. _____ the Bible.
2. _____ Scripture – dig down deep.
3. _____ on God's Word.
4. _____ key verses.
5. _____ it to daily life (James 1:22).

Conclusion:

- Saturating our minds with Scripture is more than a Christian chore – it's a primary way to hear from God and discover His will for our lives.
- Scripture will help me be _____, not _____ before God (II Timothy 2:15).
