

Questions Jesus Asked

Introduction:

- There are a lot of wrongs in this world that need to be made right – such as human trafficking, poverty, contaminated water, and many other injustices.
- These serious issues raise at least a couple of questions for us as Christians: “Does God care?” and “Do I have any role in all of this?”
- This morning, we will see why Jesus fed a multitude of hungry people and how He expects you and me to be involved with Him.

1. God invites us to join Him in being the solution to the

_____.

“You give them something to eat” (v. 37, emphasis added).

“How many loaves do you have?” (v. 38, emphasis added).

He gave them to the disciples to set before the people (v. 41, emphasis added).

They took up 12 baskets full (v. 43, emphasis added).

I Corinthians 3:9 – We are laborers together with God!

If you are a follower of Jesus, then He has a purpose and plan for you.
Dustin Willis and Aaron Coe, Life on Mission, p. 26

2. Joining God on mission requires not our little, but _____.

And when they found out [how many loaves they had] they said, “Five and two fish” (v. 38).

And taking the five loaves and the two fish... (v. 41).

3. What you hold in your hands will multiply when you put it in

_____.

He...said a blessing and broke the loaves (v. 41).

And they all ate and were satisfied (v. 42).

And they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces (v. 43).

Conclusion:

It's not how many loaves you have...

...it's _____!
