

THE SENDING

JOHN 20:21

Introduction:

- There's a high probability that all of us here this morning have personally experienced the shame of quitting. It's one thing to quit the baseball team in 7th grade, but it's an altogether different thing to quit the Christian life.
- This morning, as we continue to look at the lives of those 1st century believers whom Jesus sent, we are going to look at a guy who quit. But he himself is not the main character in his own story; God is. And we're going to learn about a God who redeems our failures.

John Mark's Life:

The Early Years (Acts 12 and 13)

The Dark Period (Acts 13 and 15)

The Latter Years (Colossians 4 and II Timothy 4)

Lessons For All of Us:

1. The story of John Mark's life is a picture of _____.

2. The stories of God's faithfulness belong to those who _____.

Conclusion: