

ONE ANOTHER

JOHN 13:34-35

Introduction:

- Please turn in your Bibles to John 13 (page 900 in the pew Bible).
- This morning, we're launching a new series in which we'll explore the One Another commands in the Bible.
- For an interesting breakdown of the One Another commands, check out: <https://overviewbible.com/one-another-infographic/>

The One Another commands are the _____ and _____ that guide how Christians are to relate to fellow believers.

JOHN 13:34-35

A _____ command – _____ . (v. 34)

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another." (v. 34)

A new _____ of our love – we are to love _____ .

A new _____ of our love – _____ loved us.

Specific ways Christ has loved me:

A new _____ to our love.

- 1 John 3:8-11
- 1 John 3:16-18
- 1 John 4:7-12

A new _____ . (v. 35)

"By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." (v. 35)

If you have a fish symbol on your car, that's fine. People will associate you with a movement. Do you display a cross? Nothing bad about that. People will link you to a religion. If you carry a Bible everywhere you go, people will assume you attend a particular church. If, however, you display love that is authentic to the core – observable love – then people will know you are a follower of Christ.

Chuck Swindoll, Insights on John, pg. 218

The _____ :

- _____ that we're followers of Christ. (John 13:35; 1 John 4:7-8)
- _____ those who don't know Christ... yet.

Conclusion:

- What do we want to be _____?
- How are _____?

Questions for Personal Reflection:

- How would I describe Christ's love for me?
- How has the love of other believers impacted me?
- Is there a fellow Christian whom I'm having a hard time loving?
- What can I do to show them Christ-like love this week?
